SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1868.

YESTERDAY.—THE "SO CALLED."

There were several noticeable features in the performances of the troupe, now exhibiting in the Commons Hall, on yesterday.

The Ordinance on the subject of the Militia was perfected in Committee of the Whole and reported to the Convention.

The Reporter of the Carolinian was given notice to quit, by the President, because the term "nigger" had been employed to designate Jeemes H. Harris, the debonnaire "gemman of Color" who represents Wake in part, and for other flings at the dignity of the concern. We judge, from the tenor of the report, that the immaculates were not altogether satisfied that the President had not barred our own Reporter; but we take pleasure in doing that gentleman the justice to say, that he is not willing, as yet, to butt his head against the Dictionary, common sense, and common usage, all at once.

But the most remarkable episode in yesterday's proceedings, was the disposition which was made of Mr. Durham's resolution looking to a general amnesty. It will be remembered that Mr. Tourgee, on Thursday, when the negro Hood introduced his resolution, looking to the absolution of a few Radical pets, moved an amendment so as to embrace those who stood by the Union during the war. This having been defeated, Mr. Tourgee brought up his resolution, as a separate proposition, on yesterday, when Mr. Durham introduced his amendment contemplating a recommendation to Congress for the removal of the disabilities of all our disfranchised fellow citizens. He defended his amendment in his usual trenchant style, and with his accustomed ability, but the amendment, carrying Mr. Tourgee's resolution with it, was, finally, laid on the table, on motion of a Mr. Mann, a Yankee, ela Cumberland. We call attention to the vote. The mongrel Convention, called by Congress, has thus fixed its status in this matter:

1. It is in favor of unqualified negro suffrage, but opposed to the enfranchisement of all the white men of the State.

2. It is opposed to the removal of disabilities from men, (like B. F. Moore, Hon. Lewis Hanes, R. T. Henry, Hon. Nat. Boyden, Hon. R. P. Dick, and others,) who were consistent Union men during the war, because they do not now sympathize with the Radical destructionists.

3. It is only in favor of an amnesty to former blatant "rebels," who are now ready to eat dirt by the cart-load.

IMMIGRATION.

We observe, with much pleasure, that large numbers of Northern planters are emigrating to Virginia, and buying lands, at fair prices, for agricultural purposes. This is precisely the kind of immigration which is needed in North Carolina. Labor is not so much needed, as money and inducements to labor. Labor has been demoralized, it is true, by the unfortunate political status, in which the South has been placed by the Radicals; but we are not hopeless that the day will yet come, when that portion of the laboring population among the blacks may be reduced to some system and may be cured of its demoralization.

No State in the Union offers stronger inducements for the employment of capital in agriculture, fruit and wine raising, in manufacturing and mining, than this State. The entire area of the State, East of Raleigh, is one of the finest corn and cotton-raising regions to be found. Corn is raised in that region with less cost, and in larger quantities, than is usually found anywhere. Much of the best lands, in their natural condition, when the forest is removed, will produce 75 bushels of corn. The average yield on ordinary lands is, perhaps, from 25 to 50 bushels. Cotton is raised finely, with ordinary help, with good seasons, making about a bale to the acre. Wheat of a fine quality does well in our Northeast counties. This whole region is perhaps superior to any other portion of the country for wine making. The varieties of the Scuppernong are numerous, and all good wine makers.

West of Raleigh, the lands are well adapted to wheat, tobacco and hay. Our mountain region is unequalled as a sheep raising country. The natural grasses are abundant. Fruits of the finest kinds are grown West of this city in great abundance.

The lands in this State, at ordinary times, sell for from $1 to $100 per acre. At present, lands of excellent quality can be bought from $8 to $30 per acre. Hence, we say, North Carolina offers the highest inducements to immigration.

MR. WILLIAMS, OF SAMPSON.—Our readers observed, a day or two ago, that the Committee on Privileges and Elections, in the Convention, had reported in favor of ousting Mr. Williams, of Sampson, and admitting a Mr. Hall. This strikes us as an unjustifiable proceeding. If it should be ascertained that any one holds a seat improperly, the facts should be made known to Gen. Canby, who, according to the Reconstruction Acts, determines the fitness of each member, and alone has the right to remove. If Mr. W. is likely to be unjustly dealt by, we desire to know all the facts.

N. C. MILITIA.—The clause inserted in the new Constitution, by the "so-called," compels "all able-bodied male citizens of the State of North Carolina, between the ages of twenty one and forty years, who are citizens of the United States," to serve in the militia. This leaves, of course, to the Legislature, the power to "mix up" black and white in the same company or regiment, and thereby secure, if desired, black officers over white privates. How does this strike the white freemen of North Carolina?

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

Gen. Grant, some time since, ordered the closing up of the operations of the Bureau in Tennessee and Kentucky, within a short time. Congress will reverse that order, and, owing to the strong persuasion and political reasons, which are being urged by and through Gen. Howard, the whole business will be continued for another year after the 1st of July next.

Were not the evidences palpable that it is industriously employed as a political engine, for the promotion of the Radical cause, and did we not believe that its vast expenditures are totally wasted or have become in a great measure a promoter of idleness, we should not urge a complaint against the continuance of the Bureau.

Some of our colored population, and we record it to their honor, whose ages and circumstances make them as fit subjects of charity as thousands of others who almost subsist upon the Bureau, have never yet gone to it for relief. They feel, very properly, that it is a degradation to put themselves upon the pauper list, by going to the Bureau. But there are thousands of able bodied men and women, who will not work, so long as they can be supplied with food and clothing from this source. The Bureau Agent's office, in this City, although it has been long understood that the rations were out or that it was done issuing, is daily thronged with colored persons begging, whose appearance indicates as much ability to work as any portion of our laboring population. Whether these hungry applicants are supplied, we cannot tell, but the number of hangers on is still large.

HOLDERS OF STATE BONDS.

The Convention is intensely Radical, and there is a strong disposition to relieve the people, in regard to their private debts, which will be done in some form,—some of the members being strong repudiators,—yet the holders of the bonds of the State need not feel any uneasiness, whatever, as to the repudiation of the State's public obligations. Of course, with a new class of voters numbering over 70,000, who can have no interest in the public indebtedness of the State, except to get rid of taxation, and therefore may be used by demagogues to a fearful extent, no one can tell what may be done in future. But the large majority of our white people will always oppose such repudiation, unless they become generally demoralized. Northern Radicals, who hold Southern State bonds, clearly are wronging themselves, when they favor universal negro suffrage.

PRE-JUDGMENT.—We give, elsewhere, the extract from the Washington Evening Express, relative to the reputed declaration, in the course of conversation in private circles, by one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, to the effect that the Reconstruction Acts of Congress were unconstitutional, and that the Court would so pronounce them. This rumored expression of opinion, (it is understood by Judge Field,) in advance of a judicial decision, is held by the Radicals in Congress to afford just ground for impeachment. We think, ourselves, that the declaration from such a quarter, under the circumstances, was ill advised and wrong, but it Judge Field is worthy of impeachment therefor, what shall be said of Chief-Justice Chase, who has played the partisan on innumerable occasions within the past twelve months?—What shall be said of Senators, themselves, Judges in the Court of Impeachment, who did not scruple, when the question of impeaching President Johnson was under consideration in the House of Representatives, to denounce him, in advance, as guilty of the "high crimes and misdemeanors" charged? It is the old, old story of "your bull and my ox."

REVENUE OFFICERS.—We have received a complaint from a correspondent, who represents that the conduct of some of the subordinate Revenue officers, in some portions of the State, is highly improper and insulting. He says, "in many places, it has become difficult to get a permit to ship cotton, or to transact the simplest business with them, without insult and injury. The spirit of tyranny and oppression is truly contagious and is making sad havoc through the South. These petty tyrants should be marked and remembered, so long as the people entertain a hope of ever managing again their own affairs." We do not think that these remarks apply to any officer in this section, so far as we have learned. They are generally, we believe, accommodating and polite.

"PRESIDENT" HOLDEN, vice Presidents Harris, (negro,) and A. H. Jones, (white,) and C. W. Horner, Secretary, are out in a long appeal to the Loyal Leaguers, to stand ready to endorse and ratify the new Constitution of the so called Convention. Every true hearted white man in the State, who feels that he is a freeman, will leave this secret political organization, and vote independently. Many white men have been led into these Leagues, by false pretences, and the fears of many of them have been excited on the subject of confiscation, &c. Let honest "tar heels" put their veto upon this impudent dictation from the leaders of the "Loyal Leagues."

THE MINORITY REPORT ON SUFFRAGE.—The excellent minority report of Messrs. Graham, of Orange, and Durham, on Suffrage, will be found in another column. It is from the pen of Mr. Graham, and presents, in a clear and forcible light, the sentiments of the great mass of the white people of North Carolina, and the objections which must exist, in every sound mind, to the degrading and blighting consequences of unqualified negro suffrage.

DUPLIN.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of this county was held on the 21st ult. Col. W. A. Allen presided and made an effective and patriotic speech. Appropriate resolutions were adopted and twenty-five delegates appointed to the approaching Convention.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

FRIDAY, Jan. 31, 1868.

Prayer by the Rev. — Warwick, (negro.)

Mr. Bryan presented a petition from the citizens of Wilkes, praying the removal of disloyal officers and replacing them with "loyal men." Referred.

Mr. Tourgee, a report from the Committee on Towns, &c., to whom was referred Eppes' (negro) resolution, and asked to be discharged from its consideration, as the subject matter did not come within their province.

Mr. Rich, a resolution that the Committee on Governor, &c., consider and report the propriety of giving the Governor the veto power. Lies over.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution that the Committee provided for by Hood's (negro,) resolution be instructed to petition Congress to relieve the disabilities of persons who were not in accord with the reconstruction acts, but who were good Union men during the war. Mr. T. moved to suspend the rules, and put the resolution on its passage. Agreed to.

Mr. Durham moved to amend, by striking out all after the word "instructed," and insert the following: "to ascertain and report the names of all citizens of the State, who are disfranchised by the Reconstruction acts of Congress, that this Convention may recommend the same to Congress for a removal of their political disabilities."

Mr. Durham said that he offered this amendment in good faith, and was determined that members should put themselves upon record. It was the same, substantially, that he offered yesterday, to the resolution which passed this body. The enforcement of the previous question, by the majority, prevented its consideration then, and he saw, already, that members on the other side were prepared to dodge the issue to-day. The object of this whole move was very plain. It was simply to remove political disabilities from those who support the Republican party. This was the test of loyalty.

If (said Mr. D.) submission to party dictation and a craven willingness to rivet upon my people the unconstitutional and tyrannical measures of reconstruction, now proposed, is loyalty, then I am disloyal; but if opposition to the attempted proscription and tyranny of the majority here, and opposition to the despotism which is being pressed upon the people of N. C., is loyalty, then I am loyal. If it is the intention of this Convention to recommend the enfranchisement of all who support the Republican party, as the resolution which passed this body, yesterday, proposes, and to exclude from the elective franchise, and all other rights of citizenship, all who oppose their party, let it be said frankly, that the people may understand your action. But the intelligence of the white people, North and South, will condemn the infamy of such a policy, and the authors of such an infamous and contemptible course will be remembered only in the scorn and indignation of the civilized world.

Galloway (negro) moved to lay the amendment on the table, (which would have the effect of tabling the whole subject.)

[Here every body wanted to say something, and, for a moment or two, a scene of confusion ensued.]

Galloway, (negro,) then withdrew the motion.

Mr. Hodnett thought this the most important question that had yet come up. He was a loyal man—had never drawn a disloyal breath; he wanted not a sectional Union, a Union of oppression and force, but a Union of the whole, bound together by ties of love and affection, in which the life, property and rights of all would be protected by just and equitable laws. He did not think the reconstruction acts would effect this, as they stood at present. He favored a qualified suffrage. The masses of the negro race were in ignorance, lately freed (and thank God for it!) from bondage, and men must retain in their breasts the passions and prejudices that the human family is heir to. He meant no disrespect to them, and thought the earnings of the industrious and provident would be in an unsafe condition, if they should legislate to enfranchise a large mass of ignorant beings, and disfranchise a number of intelligent citizens. He would support Mr. D's amendment.

Mr. Tourgee disclaimed any intention of creating a discussion. His object, in introducing the resolution, was to clear anything like a party taint from Hood's (negro,) resolution. There were some who were not in accord with the reconstruction acts, who were good Unionists during the war; that class he wished to relieve, no matter whether they were Conservative or Republican. But as to that class, that were loyal to the so-called Confederacy, and were still antagonistic to the general government, they had no right to look to this Convention for anything.

Mr. Holt wished a vote taken upon the matter. He wanted the people to know the men who dared record themselves as voting against a general amnesty.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the unfinished business of yesterday, viz: the Report of the Committee on Militia, had precedence, when Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, moved to suspend the rules and postpone its consideration, and continue the discussion of this matter. He wished to have a full and free discussion, and a vote taken on Mr. Durham's amendment.

Several objections being raised, the vote was taken, which resulted in the motion being lost.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Sweet in the chair.

Mr. Abbott's amendment to the 3rd section of the report on militia was discussed, and, after some debate, an amendment by Mr. Jones, of Washington, striking out the whole section, was carried.

Section 4th was adopted, without objection being made.

Section 6 was stricken out.

Section 7th was partially amended.

Mr. Tourgee moved that the Committee do now rise, and report the adoption of the bill, as amended. Agreed to, when

Mr. Sweet vacated the Chair and reported progress.

Mr. Heaton moved the Report of the Committee on Governor, &c., be engrossed for final reading. Carried.

Mr. H. also moved the same in regard to the Report of the Committee on the Militia; it was also adopted.

At this stage of the proceedings, Galloway, (negro,) read an extract from the report of proceedings, in the Carolinian, in which Harris, of Wake, (negro,) was called a "nigger." He said a resolution had been passed to protect them from insult, and if it was not enforced by expelling the reporter, he gave notice he would seek redress elsewhere.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) said that he had had intercourse with a large number of respectable and intelligent white gentlemen of this State; they never had indulged in such language. The proper meaning of the word "nigger," was a "low, dirty fellow;" and if the epithet had an application, it should be applied to the editors of that paper. If the paper had a reporter on the floor, he should favor his expulsion—not for the language in question, but for the evident intention to insult the Convention.

Mr. Ashley said that the report was taken from another paper, and altered to suit the editor's views, and that the Reporter, now in his seat, had requested him to state that he wished to stand and fall by his own report in future.

Hood, (negro,) did not wish any notice taken of the affair.

Mr. Abbott said he had been misrepresented in regard to the motives that led him to introduce the resolution concerning the expulsion of a (the Sentinel) Reporter, some time ago. Editors could, in their Editorial and Local columns, comment as they pleased, but Reporters, who held their seats by the courtesy of the house, should treat the body with proper respect. He thought then, and thought now, that the resolution should be enforced, if the required change was not made, (by the Sentinel Reporter) But the matter was entirely in the hands of the President.

The President entered into a long explanation why he had not enforced the resolution; that the colored men did not think themselves insulted by the term "negro," and that it gave a certain class a chance to raise the "hue and cry" that an attempt was being made on the liberties of the press, &c.

[Here the Reporter of the Carolinian carried his manuscript to the President, as a specimen of what his report should be to-morrow. The President, after reading it, declared that the language was so insulting as to justify his exclusion, and so ordered.]

Mr. Durham protested against such action, contending that the Reporter had a right to make out his report as he pleased; he protested against the infamy of the whole proceeding.

Mr. Ashley said that he had made his first statement, in regard to the matter, under the impression that the young man was disclaiming any intention to insult the Convention, and branded this proceeding, on the part of the reporter as infamous and intolerable.

Mr. Durham was in favor of the Convention protecting itself from insult, but, at the same time, he wanted no attempts at restricting the liberties of the Press. He protested, not for the reporter, but in the name of the people of North Carolina. They should know what iniquities were being practiced here. He protested against the resolution, that gave the President the power to expel a reporter.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was opposed to the whole proceeding; it gave a certain party too much political capital to work upon.

The President entered into another statement, and, in the course of his remarks, said the Reporter of the Carolinian had acknowledged that his statement was intended to insult, and asked him to expel him.

The excitement on the Reportorial question having now subsided,

The consideration of Mr. Durham's amendment to Mr. Tourgee's resolution was resumed.

Mr. Redman suggested that the delegate from Cleaveland, instead of substituting his resolution for that of the delegate from Guilford, made an addition thereto.—Mr. R. said he was in favor of what is proposed in the amendment of the gentleman from Cleaveland. He came here, instructed by his people, and pledged, to vote in favor of relieving every disfranchisment, on account of participation in the rebellion. He earnestly desired to accomplish this, and, if the gentleman from Cleaveland will introduce his measure, either as an addition, or separately, he would vote for it, and he thought it would stand a much better chance of success, than in its present form.

Mr. Durham said the gentleman (Mr. R.) was evidently trying to dodge the question. His amendment embraced everybody—not such persons as this Convention should deem fit. If gentlemen were in favor of a general amnesty, why could they not come squarely out and support this amendment?

Hood, (negro,) thought that the adoption of such a measure would cause Congress to suspect their "loyalty!"

Mr. Rich said that Mr. Durham's amendment would embarrass the Committee to that extent that a report could never be made, as there were some five or six thousand disfranchised persons in this State.

Mr. Heaton had understood gentlemen, on the other side, to say, yesterday, that they wanted nothing at the hands of this Convention. He, for one, was for holding them up to it.

Mr Pool said the temper of the people was not ready for a general amnesty, but it was for universal suffrage. He would vote against both Mr. Tourgee's resolution and Mr. Durham's amendment.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) said something.

Mr. May was sorry so much bitter feeling had been displayed in regard to the matter. The report of each day's work was "nothing done." He thought this discussion was out of place. He wanted the whole matter voted down, and the Convention to proceed to its proper and legitimate work. Let the matter be considered when it comes up in its proper time.

Mr. Mann moved to lay the amendment on the table.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, called for the yeas and nays. The call being sustained, the Secretary proceeded to call the roll, and the following gentleman were understood to have voted in the affirmative:

Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Aydlett, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Candler, Chilison, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, (negro,) Etheridge, Fisher, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Ubowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Garland, Garrett, George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hyman, (negro,) Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, King, of Lincoln, Kinney, Lee, (negro,) Logan, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, (negro,) Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Rhodes, Robbins, (negro,) Rose, Smith, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker and Williams, of Wake.

Those who voted in the negative are,

Messrs. Baker, Bradley, Cherry, (negro,) Daniel, Dowd, Durham, Ellis, Forkner, Graham, of Orange, Gunter, Hare, Hodnett, Hollowell, Holt, Jones, of Washington, Lennon, Marler, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, Newsom, Rich, Rodman, Sanderlin, Stilly, Williams, of Sampson, and Williamson, (negro.)

Mr. Heaton moved that the report of the Committee on Bill of Rights be made the special order for 12 o'clock on Monday next. No objection.

Here some more words were had in regard to the reportorial muss, and, after determining to make Mr. Abbott's ordinance, in regard to the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad Company, the special order for to-morrow, at 12 o'clock, the Convention adjourned.

Note—[At the request of the Reporter of the Carolinian, we give place to his statement, as follows:

"When the report in the Carolinian of the morning was brought up by Galloway, the Reporter request of Mr. Ashley to state that he was not the author of it.

In order, however, to prevent misapprehension, the reporter showed to the President the first page of his notes. He told the President, to the best of his recollection, that he could read the notes; that he supposed that he, the President, would consider them disrespectful or insulting, and that he would expel him. (the reporter.) if he chose; that he didn't care if he did.

The reporter cannot swear to the exact words of the conversation, but he did not, according to his recollection, ask to be expelled. Nor did he directly state that the notes were insulting, but supposed that the President would consider them so. The reporter has the highest respect for Hon. Mr. Cowles, and is sorry that a misunderstanding should have occurred."]

THE CONSERVATIVES IN THE CONVENTION.—At the Thermopylæ of constitutional liberty stands a little band of Spartans with Capt. Durham for Leonidas at their head.—Bravely do they meet the over powering odds against them, but fruitlessly as of old. And yet they are doing much good. They expose to our view the deformed and ill-shaped carcass which they daily dissect and enable us to understand its anatomy. The noble stand which this little band of patriots has taken, will endear them to the hearts of the true people of North Carolina and they will not be forgotten. The time is coming when the "Old North State" will have it in her power to reward her worthy sons. The present unnatural, unlawful and disgraceful state of affairs cannot and will not endure forever. The returning reason of the true people of the United States will put it all right. Let us wait and hope and pray.—Warrenton Courier.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.
THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.
The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.
During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have proceeded their studies with entire success.
We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.
Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.
The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven Lady Teachers.
Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.
Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1868.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO-MORROW.—Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, will preach at Christ's Church, (Episcopal) to-morrow morning and night, and administer the rite of Confirmation, —whether in the forenoon or evening, we are not advised. Services will begin at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock, P. M.

Rev. H. T. Hudson, the Pastor, will preach at the Methodist Church, morning and evening. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock, P. M.

Rev. J. M. Atkinson, at the Presbyterian Church, morning and afternoon. Services at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 3½ o'clock, P. M.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, the newly elected Pastor, will preach at the Baptist Church, morning and night—11 o'clock A. M., and 7 o'clock, P. M. We take, from the Petersburg Index, the following account of one of Mr. P's last sermons, on Sunday last, in Petersburg:

"The discourse was preached from the text: "Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without the knowledge of our Heavenly Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered."—Matt. 10; 29. 30. The subject discussed was the special providence of God, and it was handled in a masterly and convincing manner, proof upon proof of the most indubitable character being adduced to sustain the position assumed by the speaker, that nothing happened by chance, but that all things are subject to the control of an overruling providence. At the conclusion of the sermon, the Reverend gentleman took formal leave of his congregation, in a few touching remarks,—several of his hearers being moved to tears and a feeling of sadness pervading the whole assembly."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Marriage and Celibacy: Dr. J. Skillen Houghton, Howard Association, Philadelphia.

J. M. Tate, with Porter, Day & Co., successors to W. Smith Brown & Co., and Porter & Higby, Wholesale Dealers in Boots and Shoes, 53 Chambers St., N. Y. Mr. Tate, at present in the city, is a North Carolinian, formerly of Burke co., and invites orders for the excellent House which he represents.

BISHOP ATKINSON'S Lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association will come off some time during the next week, we understand. The time and place will be duly announced, hereafter.

SARGENT'S BENEFIT, last night, was greeted by a large audience, who were delighted, as usual, with the excellent representations of his Dramatic Company.—Another good programme, to-night.

CASTELLO'S CIRCUS.—The great Mammoth Combination will be in Raleigh on Monday and Tuesday, the 10th and 11th inst. Nash Square or Capitol Square.

"DE ARCHIVES."—We understand that general complaint is expressed, among the Radicals, at the official report (for which $6 per day is paid) of Thursday's Convention proceedings, in yesterday's Standard. An explanation is necessary. "De keeper of de archives" was absent, and, we understand, a negro reported in his place. "De archives" are in danger, and Carey should look to the matter, instanter.

BORROWED CONUNDRUMS.—"Why are Galtoway and Jim Harris like dumplings boiling in the pot?"—Because they are always popping up.

"Why is a bottle of sarsaparilla pop like Tourgee?" Because when you open its mouth, only gas escapes!

SHERIFF OF WAKE.—E. H. Ray, Sheriff of this County, has been relieved, at his own request, by General Canby, and Rufus K. Ferrell, Esq. appointed in his stead. Mr. P. claims to be able to take the iron-clad. He will probably make a good officer.

GOV. WORTH.—We regret to state that his Excellency, Governor Worth, who has been confined to his house, in a great measure, for weeks past, by indisposition, was quite sick on yesterday. We sincerely trust that he may be speedily restored to his wonted vigorous health.

COPPERHEADS.—We understand that our jocose "Nursery Alphabet" was not appreciated by some of the Radicals. One, who does not belong to the Temperance Society, denounced the Sentinel as a "Copperhead sheet." He does not seem to know what Copperhead means. It was given to those Northern men, during the war, who did not stand up for their section. We stood up for our section, and still do; hence, we are not Copperheads. The real Copperheads in North Carolina, at this time, are the Radicals. They are against their section.

REPORT OF THE MINORITY OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUFFRAGE, IN CONVENTION, JAN. 30, 1868.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on "Suffrage and Eligibility to Office," regretting that they have been unable to agree with the majority of the Committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

We cannot view, without serious apprehension, the admission to all the highest rights and privileges of citizenship, of a race, consisting almost entirely of those recently emerged from slavery, and unfitted by previous education and habits of thought and self-reliance, for the intelligent discharge of the duties and responsibilities which would devolve upon them. We do not regard the right to vote as natural or inherent, but conventional merely—to be regulated in such way as will best promote the welfare of the whole community. Upon this principle women and minors have been excluded. Is there any reason why the negro should be advanced to a higher position?

While we do not deny that there are individuals of that class who might be expected to express their own convictions at the ballot box, still the great mass of them are as ignorant and prejudiced, that they easily become the dupes of designing adventurers and demagogues, and, through secret leagues and associations, introduced from Northern States, merely follow the instructions and reflect the views of those who control them.

We believe that the blessings we have derived from our government, have been due to the virtue, intelligence and independence of those invested with the right of suffrage, and we tremble for the safety of Republican Institutions when it shall be determined to confer this trust upon those who mentally and morally are unfit to administer it,—to "confide the power of making laws to those who have no property to protect, and to bestow the right to levy taxes on those who have no taxes to pay."

But it is said that the proposed alteration is demanded by Congress and is necessary to restore our State to Constitutional relations with the Federal Government. It is certainly a singular demand, that we should extend the elective franchise to those who are so inexperienced and little prepared for the ordinary business of life, that the government deems it necessary, through the Freedmen's Bureau, to exercise supervision and tutelage over them. But we deny the power of Congress to prescribe to North Carolina, who shall or who shall not vote.

This has always been recognized as one of those great rights reserved to the States, and in fact it is their privilege to prescribe who shall vote for members of Congress—as the Constitution of the U. S., Art. I. Sec. II. provides:

"The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States; and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature."

Congress certainly recognized North Carolina as a State in proper constitutional relations, when the ratification of the XIII amendment by our Legislature of 1865-'6 was accepted, and also when the proposed XIV amendment was submitted to our Legislature of 1866-'7 for ratification.

We can, then, only regard the present measures as a punishment for our conduct on the latter occasion. Such legislation strikes us as ex post facto, tyrannical and unjust. We cannot consent that our State should be degraded to an inferior position to her sisters—that she shall expunge from her Constitution clauses, excluding the negro from voting or holding office, which other States have indignantly refused to strike from their own. We refer, especially, to the Constitutions of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, New York and Illinois. We do think that the requirement would come with much better grace, if these and other States had altered their Constitutions, or if it was proposed to so amend the Constitution of the United States, as to make the application universal.

Viewing the matter in every light that presents itself, and willing to extend to the negro population every right that would legitimately result from the late war, or that is necessary to their security and happiness—we yet think the welfare of both races is best promoted by retaining our present Constitution.

We consider the whole scheme as intended to advance party purposes, and to secure the next Presidential election—in the expectation that the States of the South, being Africanized and Radicalized, may more than counterbalance the loss of electoral votes that will occur in other sections of the Union. We advise that North Carolina shall refuse to alter her Constitution, under dictation from a Congress composed of members who have ceased to represent their constituents, and who, in defiance of the voice of the people as expressed in recent elections, still harden their hearts and devise new tasks for us. Let us rather trust to a returning sense of justice, on the part of the Northern people, and that spirit of magnanimity which will revolt at the idea of "forcing the South to accept in a huge mass that which the North rejects in minute quantities."

Let us act upon our own conscientious convictions of what is best for North Carolina, and, while submitting patiently to the present military rule, not forget that freedom of opinion which is our birthright. If, then, negro suffrage and negro equality are forced upon us, we will not have consented to our own humiliation, and will at least have preserved our honor and self respect.

JOHN W. GRAHAM,
P. DURHAM.

THE NEW SUFFRAGE BILL OF MR. STEVENS.—"Old Thad" has at length reached the radical ultimatum on the suffrage question, in a bill which he introduced in Congress providing the right of suffrage to every male citizen of the United States in all Presidential elections and in all State elections, and that all elections shall be by ballot.—This is a very important amendment of the Radical reconstruction system, which, as it stands, enforces universal negro suffrage only upon the unreconstructed rebel States. Mr. Stevens thinks no doubt that "sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander," and hence he honestly proposes the expansion of universal negro suffrage by act of Congress over all the States. The States of Ohio and New York, for instance, in rejecting universal negro suffrage, are to be treated just like North and South Carolina and brought under proper discipline. What is to be the next thing in order we do not know; but it would not surprise us in the least if it appear in the shape of a bill of disfranchisement against all white persons in the Northern States deemed disloyal by the radical Directory or Committee of Safety at Washington.—N. Y. Herald.

Governor Humphries, of Mississippi, advises the Conservatives to vote when the ratification of the new Constitution comes up for discussion. He says in this way the struggle must be carried on, and not by the opposite passive policy.

The Philadelphia News very truly says: It Congress could only be induced to abandon its wild crusade against the people of the Southern States, there are thousands of splendid opportunities for Northern men to make fortunes with very moderate investments.

STATE ITEMS.

—— Dr. Deems has consented to deliver two Lectures in Wilmington, at an early day, for the conjoint benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Society and the Seamen's Friend Society.

—— Capt. J. R. Turnbull, of Warrenton, after a period of several years suffering, from a minnie ball, has had it extracted. It was cut out of the back in the region of the last lumbar vertebra. The operation was performed by Dr. Geo. A. Foote.

—— The Plaindealer is the name of a new Weekly paper, just started at Wilson, as a successor to the Carolinian. It is edited by C. S. McDaniel and gives excellent promise. Here is our [illegible]

—— A correspondent of the Warrenton Courier mentions the fact that, with a liberality rarely equalled, Col. Wharton J. Green, of that County, devotes a considerable portion of his ample income to the education of the poor white children of the County. At his own personal cost, he defrays all the expenses of two free schools, and at the same time contributes to supply the most needy with clothing. This is, indeed, noble.

GENERAL ITEMS.

Brownlow, in a letter to the Tennessee Radical Convention, avows himself in favor of paying those bonds and obligations of the government, not stipulated to be paid in coin, in greenbacks or legal tenders.

The taxation clause, proposed to be inserted in the Virginia Constitution, provides that the General Assembly may levy a poll tax, (according to the Whig,) not exceeding $500 upon each male citizen, 21 years of age, exclusively for education. The types must be at fault. We presume it is $5.

The Conservatives of Virginia are organizing rapidly, according to the plans recently adopted by the Conservative State Convention at Richmond.

The people of West Feliciana, La., recently tendered Hon. Jefferson Davis a public dinner, which he declined. Mr. D. is urged strongly for the Presidency of the Texas Pacific Railroad. He is on a visit to his brother, near Vicksburg.

Thurlow Weed, of the N. Y. Commercial, (Radical,) says that "Congress is hazarding the loss of twenty white States, for the control of the ten black ones."

The Charleston News says, that the negro delegates in Convention, who at first evinced some moderation, finding that they are all powerful in that body, are becoming more violent and uncontrolled by their leaders. Such will be the case universally, when they think they are strong enough to go alone.

HOLDEN'S PROGRAMME.—The virtuous Holden, who aspires to direct and control the action of the Reconstruction Convention just assembled in North Carolina, takes time by the forelock, and already labors to secure a speedy consummation of their work by the parti-colored delegates of that body.—He announces in the Standard, with an authoritative air, that it is expected that the Convention will complete its work by the 22d of February, and that the Constitution will be submitted to the people by the last of March, at which time the people will also elect a Governor, other State officers, members of Congress and of the State Legislature. The last named body is to assemble by the middle of April, ratify the constitutional amendment, elect Senators, and do all other acts needful to secure the re-admission of the State by the 1st of May next.

This is a very pretty programme as it stands, but Holden has evidently failed to appreciate the lesson taught by the experience of other States. In Virginia, for example, a similar programme was arranged, and a thirty-day session was deemed amply sufficient to perfect the work of constitution making; but in an evil hour Gen. Schofield consented to open the Treasury of the State to the greedy hands of the dusky delegates and their white allies, who, having once fingered the unwonted sum of eight dollars per diem, have no idea of bringing labors so richly remunerated to a speedy close.—Holden will probably find that his pets will be actuated by similar feelings, and may prepare himself for a compulsory extension of the time allowed. He may, therefore, put a curb upon his impatience, and not calculate with such certainty on being elevated to a position in the Radical Senate by May day.—Lynchburg News.

Senator Doolittle opened his great speech against the pending Reconstruction bill in these words: "Mr. President, there is more involved in this measure than in any other, all others, perhaps. I see in it a complete overthrow of the constitution in ten States of the Union. I see in it a practical dissolution of the Union. I see a republic, in form at least, still remaining North of the Potomac. I see an empire rising South of it. I see in it the realization of the wildest dream of Calhoun—a Dual Executive—a President to execute the laws in the republic of the North; a military dictator, independent of the President, to make as well as execute laws in the negro empire of the South."

THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE RECONSTRUCTION MEASURES.—At a private gathering of gentlemen, of both political parties, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court spoke very freely concerning the reconstruction measures of Congress, and declared in the most positive terms that all these laws were unconstitutional, and that the Court would be sure to pronounce them so. Some of his friends near him suggested that it was quite indiscreet to speak so positively, when he at once repeated the views in a more emphatic manner.—Wash. Evening Express, 27th.

Gen. Longstreet called on Gen. Hancock, in New Orleans, the other day. The latter was entertaining some friends at the time, and, introducing his visitor, said: "Ladies and gentlemen, allow me to introduce to you a gallant gentleman, to whom I am indebted for an ungraceful limp, and whom I had the misfortune to wing in the same combat."

THE PRESIDENCY.—The Annapolis Democrat has raised the flag of the Hon. Andrew Johnson for President, and Governor Swan for Vice-President of the United States.

How is this? A Radical paper says General Butler was insulted by Colonel White, is sending his challenge through the hands of a negro!

For the Sentinel.

[No. 2]

This interesting book of travel shows, clearly, from beginning to end, that its accomplished author entered upon his exploration as an earnest sympathizer with the negro race,—that he had imbibed his views of the negro, his predilections and his prejudices about him, from the teachings of Exeter Hall-philanthropy, and that he arrived at the sentiments expressed below, only after a careful and mature examination, by living among them for five years.

The extracts furnished to-day go to show that the negro is the negro, and can be nothing else, if left to himself. Several years before the war, whilst dining at the house of a friend, in the city of Philadelphia, a Clergyman of high distinction, still living, pressed me into a conversation on the character of the negro. He insisted that the negro was equal to the Caucasian in every respect, if only he had as fair a chance of development,—to prove his position, used the arguments generally resorted to, that he was descended from a common progenitor—that he knew one or two individuals who had been educated of high intellectual powers. To his learned and elaborate argument, I simply replied that it was not philosophical to draw a general conclusion from a few isolated cases,—and that if you should groom an ass for a hundred generations, he would never be a high blooded horse, but an ass still. This offended my friend—but now for the extracts which prove it:

Pp. 196-8. "In the great system of creation that divided races and established them according to mysterious laws, apportioning special qualities to each, the varieties of the human race exhibit certain characters and qualifications which adapt them for special localities. The natural character of those races will not alter with a change of locality, but the instincts of each race will be developed in any country where they may be located. Thus, the English are as English in Australia, India and America, as they are in England, and is every other locality they exhibit the industry and energy of their native land.—Even so, the African will remain negro in all his natural instincts, although transplanted to other soils, and those natural instincts being a love of idleness and savagedom, he will assuredly relapse into an idle and savage state, unless specially governed and forced to industry.

The history of the negro has proved the correctness of this theory. In no instance has he evinced other than a retrogression, when once freed from restraint. Like a horse without harness, he runs wild, but if harnessed, no animal is more useful. Unfortunately, this is contrary to public opinion in England, where the vox populi assumes the right of dictation upon matters and men in which it has had no experience. The English insist upon their own weights and measures as the scales for human excellence, and it has been decreed by the multitude, inexperienced in the negro, personally, that he has been "a badly treated brother;" that he is a worthy member of the human family, placed in an inferior position through the prejudice and ignorance of the white men, with whom he should be on an equality.

The negro has been, and still is, thoroughly misunderstood. However severely we may condemn the terrible system of slavery, the results of emancipation have proved that the negro does not appreciate the blessings of freedom, nor does he show the slightest feeling of gratitude to the hand that broke the rivets of his fetters. His narrow mind cannot embrace that feeling of pure philanthropy that first prompted England to declare herself against slavery, and he only regards the anti-slavery movement as a proof of his own importance. In his limited horizon he is himself the important object, and, as a sequence to his self conceit, he imagines that the whole world is at issue concerning the black man. The negro, therefore, being the important question, must be an important person, and he conducts himself accordingly—he is far too great a man to work. Upon this point his natural character exhibits itself most determinedly. Accordingly, he resists any attempt at coercion;—being free, his first impulse is to claim an equality with those whom he lately served, and to usurp a dignity with absurd pretensions that must inevitably insure the disgust of the white community. Ill-will thus engendered, a hatred and jealousy is established between the two races, combined with the errors that in such conditions must arise on both sides. The final question remains: Why was the negro first introduced into our colonies?"

The State Treasurer of Georgia has been arrested by the military authorities.—The cause of arrest is not reported, but it was, probably, to compel him to produce the books of his Department.

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31, P. M.

It is stated that the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee is adverse to immediate report on the Supreme Court bill.

In the Supreme Court, in the case, ex parte, McCardle, a motion to dismiss was made, on the grounds, 1st. Want of jurisdiction. 2d. Appeal is from judgment of a United States Circuit Court, in a case of original jurisdiction, and not from a case in which the Circuit Court held appellate jurisdiction only. 3d. The Circuit Court, which issued the habeas corpus, had no jurisdiction of the case or proceeding, under any law of Congress.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31, P. M.

HOUSE.—Elliott reported a bill, continuing the Freedman's Bureau. The resolutions, withdrawing the assent of Ohio to the Howard Amendment, were presented.

The Judiciary Committee was instructed to report on the law question involved.

The Conference report on the cotton tax was adopted. It abolishes the tax after 1867, and the tariff after Nov. 1st, 1868. Vote 104 to 43. John Young Brown's case was discussed till adjournment.

SENATE.—Ohio's withdrawal of assent to the Howard Amendment, created quite a sensation. Sherman, Johnson agreed, with others, that the assent could not be withdrawn.

Reconstruction was resumed.

District matters were considered, and the Senate adjourned.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Jan. 31, P. M.

Several additional articles embodied in the Report of the Finance Committee were adopted.

One of these provides for the settlement, with the State of West Virginia, about her share of the debt, and the appropriation of the amount, when paid, to the payment of the public debt of Virginia.

The franchise report will come up next week. There are three majority reports, disfranchising those who are disfranchised by the Reconstruction acts. A substitute was reported by a Republican member of the Committee, and a minority report by the Conservative members of the Committee.

GEORGIA CONVENTION, &C.

ATLANTA, Jan. 31, P. M.

The Bill of Rights was completed, to-day, by the Convention, and the subject of relief was debated, without any definite results, to the hour of adjournment.

The meeting of the Radical State Convention, which was filed for the 19th. of February, has been postponed to a day not announced.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 31, P. M.

Nothing of importance was done in the Convention to-day. Adjourned till Monday. State bills to the amount of $12,000 were received from the State Treasurer, for expenses of members of the Convention.

The military authorities have instructed the civil authorities to arrest Mackay, son of the President, who assaulted the Reporter, on Monday.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and IS PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

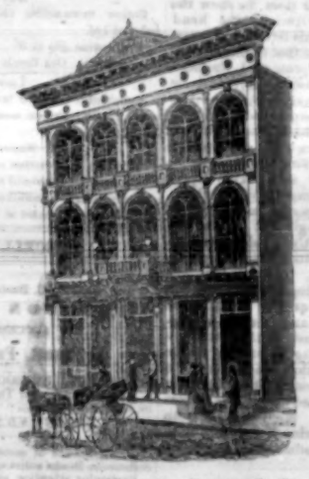
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION.



AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

FAMILY FLOUR!

A SUPERIOR QUALITY JUST IN AND FOR sale by

Jan 21-138-1w LYNN ADAMS.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 184.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON BOND DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced."

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
